

Nebraska One Box
PHEASANT HUNT
BROKEN BOW, NEBRASKA

2018 NEW TEAM BIOS

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OMAHA

---

TEAM HOSTS

Pat & Tristan Berggren
Norris & Lori Marshall
Jeanne Berggren

Party Venue: Berggren Residence - 1109 S. 5th Ave.

Terry Dutton .....Blair, NE
John Hoggatt ..... Kearney, NE
Bruce Lauritzen .....Omaha, NE
Tim Struthers..... DeKalb, IA
Greg Wilke .....North Platte, NE

---

CAPTAIN

Terry Dutton (Blair, NE): Terry is currently President and CEO of Washington County Bank in Blair, Nebraska. Dutton originally joined Washington County Bank in 1992 as Vice President of Equipment Financing. Dutton transferred to First National Bank of Omaha to their Equipment Financing Division where he was President for ten years before returning to Washington County Bank as President in 2007. Prior to joining the Lauritzen organization Dutton spent over ten years with International Harvester and Case IH.

Terry graduated from Dana College with a bachelor's degree in Business and Economics, and from the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. He is an avid outdoorsman that enjoys hunting and fishing. Terry's other community endeavors are Memorial Community Hospital, Blair, Nebraska (past Chairman of the Board), Director of the Blair Family YMCA (Past President and founding board member), past Trustee for the Nature Conservancy, Blair Rotary (past President), and Blair Mayor's Advisory Board.

---

TEAM MEMBERS

John Hoggatt (Kearney, NE): John Hoggatt is the Kearney/ Grand Island Market President of First National Bank, part of the largest family-owned holding company in the United States, First National of Nebraska. Prior to his employment with First National Bank, John served as Business Banking Manager for the Grand Island and Kearney markets of Wells Fargo Bank, from 2000-2003. Executive Vice President & Senior Loan Officer of Overland National Bank, in Grand Island, Nebraska from 1996 to 2000. Through the years of 1994-1996, he served as a Correspondent Banker with the National Bank of Commerce in Lincoln. Prior to 1994 he served in various positions with First National Bank of Kearney; Assistant Vice President Commercial Banking, Credit Analyst/Loan Review Officer, Comptroller/ Asst. Cashier, Reconciliation Clerk, General Services Clerk/ Operations.

Mr. Hoggatt's professional affiliations are numerous and varied, inclusive of the following: American Banker's Association member, Nebraska Banker's Association, Kearney Family YMCA Board Member, Kearney Noon Rotary member, Overland Trail Council/Boy Scouts Finance Chair, Rob Morris Lodge #46 member, Leadership Kearney Class #2 Alumni, Grand Island Education Foundation past Board Member, Grand Island Chamber of Commerce past Board Member, Heartland United Way past Board Member, and Diplomat to the Governor of Nebraska. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska at Kearney, the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado, Leadership Kearney, and a member of the current Leadership Nebraska class.

His interest in agriculture spans over 30 years in Agri-business banking throughout Nebraska, in addition to ownership of Hydro Irrigation, Inc. An avid outdoorsman, John is president of the Central Nebraska Retriever Club, an AKC performance club that hosts field trials in the area, as well as a member of Ducks Unlimited and Pheasants Forever.

Mr. Hoggatt is married to Melissa Hoggatt, and their family consists of son Matthew, daughter-in-law Elizabeth Ostwinkle-Hoggatt, daughter Jennifer Hoggatt-Reeves, and four grandchildren.

Bruce Lauritzen (Omaha, NE): Mr. Lauritzen's primary business occupation is Chairman of First National of Nebraska and Lauritzen Corporation, parent holding companies for First National Bank of Omaha. He is principal shareholder of banks and bank holding companies operating in Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, South Dakota, Kansas, Colorado, and Texas. The combined companies have 21 billion in assets, 5000 employees, and are the largest private banking organization in the United States.

Mr. Lauritzen is Royal Danish Consul for the State of Nebraska, and member of the Chief Executives Organization. He is Chairman of Clarkson Regional Health Services, and Lauritzen Gardens Board of Trustees, and a Director of Creighton University, Heritage Services, Nebraska Game and Parks Foundation and Wetlands America Trust.

He has served on numerous community boards and is a past Chairman of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, Ak-Sar-Ben, The Nebraska Medical Center and the Young Presidents' Organization, Nebraska Chapter. He was founding Chairman of the General Crook House Museum and is a past director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, Omaha Branch, the Federal Home Loan Bank of Topeka, Darden School Foundation, Charlottesville, Virginia, Visa, U.S.A, and a past member of the Federal Advisory Council to the Federal Reserve Board in Washington.

Mr. Lauritzen has received numerous honors and awards including: Knight's Cross of First Class of the Order of Dannebrog, for service to Denmark; Founders Day Award from the City of Omaha; 105th King of Aksarben; and induction into both the Omaha Business Hall of Fame and the Nebraska Business Hall of Fame and in 2015 named The Midlander of the Year by the Omaha World Herald.

Tim Struthers (DeKalb, IA): Tim is the Sr. Vice President of Commercial banking at First National Bank. First National Bank, now in its sixth generation of family ownership, is part of one of the largest family-owned holding companies in the United States.

Tim has been with the banking organization for 38 years. He got his start in the mail room in 1980 and has held a variety of jobs in retail and commercial banking. He served as President of the Illinois market until 2017 and was recently promoted to his current role leading the company's commercial banking efforts in Illinois, Kansas, Texas, South Dakota, and western Nebraska. He is based in DeKalb, Illinois.

He has over thirty five years of demonstrated leadership in business through economic cycles, acquisitions, consolidations, and political change. His keystone to success rests in deep and lasting relationships earned across business, community, political, and personal sectors. Tim is known to have a balanced approach to business with a healthy mix of vision, growth, analysis, and regard for tradition.

Tim serves on the Board of Directors of First National Bank and also First National Technology Solutions, Northern Illinois University and the Kishwaukee Water Reclamation District. He has been actively involved with a number of other community organizations over the years.

Tim has been married to his wife Marilee for 34 years. They have three adult children - Jessica (Joe), Caroline, and Mason. In his free time, Tim enjoys outdoor activities including running, biking, hunting, golfing and fishing.

Greg Wilke (North Platte, NE) : Greg is the North Platte Regional President of First National Bank that includes locations in Alliance, Chadron, Scottsbluff and two locations in North Platte. First National Bank is part of the largest family owned holding company in the United States and a subsidiary of First National of Nebraska.

Greg began his banking career as a Management Trainee in July 1985 with Harlan County Bank in Alma, NE. In October of 1987 he joined the Washington County Bank as an Agricultural Loan Officer and Indirect Dealer Paper Lender. In September 1988 he joined First National Bank North Platte and has held various positions throughout the bank. Greg has worked his way up through the bank and was named President, North Platte Region in July 2013.

Greg originated from Holdrege, NE where he graduated high school and went onto UNL earning a Bachelor of Science Degree. Other education includes NBA National School of Agricultural Lending through Iowa State University and Graduate School of Banking Colorado through University of Colorado.

Greg also serves his community through various professional affiliations which include: Chamber/DEVCO, North Platte Ambassadors, Great Plains Health Care Foundation, NE-BRASKAland Days Board of Directors and Executive Committee, North Platte Chamber Agri-Business Committee, and North Platte Kiwanis. Greg has also served as a coach for youth in soccer and baseball and is an active member of Bethel Evangelical Free Church serving on the church board and financial committee roles.

Greg is married to Sara and they have four children: Hannah, Hope, Grant and Grace.